

Intensive English Institute

University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign

Small Classes - Excellent Teaching

Why Study at the Intensive English Institute?

- Improve your English proficiency in preparation for study at a US university
- Develop your English skills to improve your professional career
- Learn English for personal reasons through formal classes and immersion in American culture

To Apply

- You must be 17 years of age or older and a high school graduate
- Apply at least 4 weeks in advance
- Go to IEI website for application, fax or mail:
Completed application form
Proof of financial support

The Intensive English Institute offers

- 20 hours per week of in-class instruction
- Small classes
- Elective courses for intermediate and advanced students
- International student advising
- IEI and University of Illinois social, cultural, and recreational activities - interact with US students outside of class
- Conversation Partner Program
- Free Internet Access
- Access to University of Illinois computer, recreational, cultural, and health facilities
- Convenient and affordable housing – dorms, apartments, homestays

Program Dates

- 15-week Fall semester (August to December)
- 15-week Spring semester (January to May)
- 8-week Summer program (June to August)

Program Costs

	Spring 2010	Summer 2010	Fall 2010
Tuition	$3,915	$2,200	$3,915
Fees	$522	$ 305	$ 522
Living Expenses	$4,500	$2,000	$4,500
TOTAL	$8,937	$4,505	$8,937

<http://www.iei.illinois.edu> • iei@illinois.edu

1205 West Nevada, Urbana, Illinois, USA 61801 • Telephone 217 333-6598 Fax 217 265-0158